ARTICLE I

NAME

Section One

The name of this organization shall be Great Lakes Affiliate of College and University Residence Halls, herein referred to as GLACURH.

Section Two

GLACURH is an affiliate of the National Association of College and University Residence Halls, Incorporated (NACURH), and shall operate in accordance with the NACURH Articles of Incorporation.

Section Three

The National Residence Hall Honorary (NRHH) is an organization that operates in accordance with NACURH, and shall operate in accordance with NACURH NRHH Policy and Procedures.

ARTICLE II

VALUES OF THE NRHH

Section One

NRHH is a leadership-based honorary comprised of exemplary residential students who value recognition and service.

Section Two

Recognition shall be defined as any and all efforts made to recognize others for their work within a residential life or university system.

Section Three

Service shall be defined as an act of dedication to one's community, campus, chapter, and self for achieving the greater good.

ARTICLE III

VISION STATEMENT

NRHH seeks to inspire and engage a lifelong commitment to the values of recognition and service in ever-changing university environments while fostering inclusion in their communities and practices.

ARTICLE IV

MISSION STATEMENT

As an honorary, NRHH unites campus leaders who dedicate themselves to recognizing and serving inclusive communities.

ARTICLE V

Regional Identity

Section 1

NRHH is a far reaching organization that encompasses many diverse universities and colleges across the region. Each campus will have their own community and needs for their NRHH chapters to address.

Section 2

Each chapter should provide opportunities for members and non-members alike to grow in leadership, while contributing to the community in recognition and service, whether it be through: programs, events, committees, etc.

Section 3

Chapters should consider GLACURH's values (Peace: Diplomacy and Inclusivity, Love: Purpose and Positive Intent, Polar Bears: Authenticity, Genuinity, and Reliability) when planning recognition and service events.

Section 4

NRHH is a rapidly changing organization, which means the regional identity should evolve with it. Every three years the regional NRHH values should be reevaluated to ensure they still encompass what the GLACURH region feels NRHH should represent.

OTM Descriptions

Section One

General Requirements

1. Each regional and NACURH OTM should be written and selected according to the following descriptions.
2. OTM nominees that are eligible for multiple categories must be submitted in the category most applicable to the language of the written OTM.

Section Two

Category Descriptions

1. Advisor: Any individual who directly advises a residence life organization and has made outstanding contributions to the organization(s). The individual may be the main advisor or the graduate advisor.
2. Community Service Program: A service or philanthropic program that benefits a group, charity, or other organization. This could include drives, fundraising, charity runs and/or book fairs, or other specific events. The program should focus on the importance of the residents giving back to their broader communities in which they live.

3. Diversity Program: A program that promotes and educates about diversity and understanding. This program illustrates the importance of promoting diversity in the residence halls as well as embracing diversity in everyday lives of the residents.
4. Educational Program: A program meant to educate residents about a topic, issue or idea. Programs nominated in this category can range from academic success programming, learning a new skill or promoting global citizenship, etc.
5. Executive Board Member: This category recognizes the outstanding contributions of an Executive Board member of a member school's residence life organization and the work of the board member within the Executive Board and across residence halls on their campus.
6. First Year Student: Any student first year student leader (freshman, transfer student, non-traditional, etc) who excels in adapting to a new environment within their residence hall and taking an active role in their communities and positively impacting those around them. Submissions in this category may emphasize academics, leadership, involvement, contributions to community, floor, hall, residence life organizations, etc. Individuals that would be eligible for nomination in any other category are ineligible for nomination in the First Year Student category.
7. Graduate Assistant: This category works to recognize the impact that housing graduate assistant staff have on the housing campus communities. This category is intended to highlight the achievements of GAs who have gone above and beyond the duties as outlined in their job description to support housing campus communities.
8. Institution Faculty/Staff: Individuals who aid students in their academics, which includes professors, instructors, teaching assistants, counselors, and other academic affairs staff. This category is intended to recognize institutional faculty who have made a contribution to the residence life community both in and out of the classroom.

9. Organization: Any organization that has actively contributed to the student leadership, recognition, or other aspects of residence life during the month of nomination. This is for recognition of the organization as a whole and not just the accomplishments of a few members. Emphasis should be placed on the successes of the organization as well as how they have helped the campus in general and the residence life community.
10. Passive Program: Any program that does not require anyone to actively run it for people to participate in it. This category is intended to recognize residential programming that occurs through bulletin boards, newsletters, pamphlets, etc.
11. Residential Community: Any residential community, such as wings, halls, floor, complexes, etc. This award should emphasize what this community has done as well as how it has supported others (both within and outside their community). This community being recognized must not be an official campus organization. Should illustrate what brings a group of individuals together and how they worked together as a group to accomplish their goals during the month of nomination. Communities that would be eligible for nomination in any other category are ineligible for nomination in the Community category.
12. Residence Life Professional Staff: Individuals who aid residents within the housing campus community. This category is intended to recognize the Residence Life Professional Staff who are not eligible for the Resident Assistant category and who have made contributions to the residence life community in the month of nomination. Examples include, but are not limited to: Hall Directors, Graduate Assistants in Residence Life, Residence Life Faculty, Directors of Residential Life, Area Coordinators, Residential Life Office Secretaries, Etc.
13. Resident Assistant: Any individual within a residence hall student staff who has worked with/impacted residents on their floor or in their hall, gone above and beyond the duties of their job, supporting residents in the communities in which they work, supported their residence life organizations, and/or made outstanding contributions to the hall in which they work during the month of nomination. The OTM should focus on the nominee's accomplishments within the RA role, but may also include other roles or responsibilities taken on during the month of nomination, such as supporting the above-mentioned organizations.

14. Student Staff Member: Any individual within a residence hall student staff position that has worked to create a positive experience for the residential community. This category is intended to recognize student staff members while these students are not working in the capacity of a Resident Assistant or Executive Board Member position and who have made outstanding contributions to the residence life community in the month of nomination. Nominees should have gone above and beyond the duties as outlined in their job description, and the OTM should focus on the nominee's accomplishments within the student staff role, but may also include other roles or responsibilities taken on during the month of nomination. Examples include any residence life student staff position, including but not limited to: housing student/office assistants, front desk/office assistants/attendants, student maintenance/custodian assistants, marketing assistants, housing ambassadors/tour guides, security assistants, residence hall safety/patrol workers, programming assistant, learning community liaison, diversity mentors and academic support/tutor; however, this should not include paid executive board members of RHA/NRHH, or other hall council positions.
15. Social Program: Any social program that focuses on resident interaction and their ability to meet new people and socialize. Programs in this category can range from being a floor social program to a campus wide program.
16. Spotlight: Anything that does not fall under any of the other categories that you feel is worthy of an Of the Month recognition. Individuals or groups that would be eligible for nomination in any other category are ineligible for nomination in the Spotlight category.

17. Student: Any individual enrolled as a student at the institution who has made outstanding contributions to the residence halls during the month of nomination. Things to consider may be students who have made a contribution to their floor, hall, residence life organization, etc. through leadership, motivation, programming, volunteering and/or being a role model for other residents during the month of nomination. This OTM may address several areas of student life, such as academics, leadership, involvement and more. Also of importance is how the nominee has balanced their roles as a leader and a student and the display of good academic choices. Advisors, executive board members, first year students and anyone that can be classified as being in the resident assistant category are not eligible for an award in this category.

TITLE VI

AMENDMENTS

Amendments of the NRHH Policy Book

AMENDMENTS OF THE NRHH POLICY BOOK

Section One

Amendments to this document shall be made at a scheduled GLACURH NRHH business meeting.

Section Two

A 2/3 affirmative vote of the affiliated NRHH chapters at the business meetings wherein the amendment is presented, shall adopt the amendment.

Section Three

Proposed amendments should be prepared and distributed to all NRHH-CCs and the Regional Board two weeks prior to the business meeting at which it is to be voted upon.

Section Four

GLACURH NRHH shall be empowered to adopt such rules and regulations as deemed necessary for carrying out its functions through the procedures established in this document, provided such rules and regulations do not conflict with this document.

Section Five

The amendments shall go into effect upon adoption of this document.

Section Six

The ADNRRH and Regional Advisor will be responsible for archiving old constitutions in ADNRRH records and the regional hard drive after each conference. The new constitution will be published to the region three weeks after the close of each conference.

Section Seven

When the NRHH National Board of NACURH passes a policy change at the NACURH-level and mandates the same change at the regional level, the formal amendment procedure shall be bypassed. The Associate Director of NRHH, in coordination with the Regional Director and Regional Advisor, shall be empowered to update this policy book immediately following such a change in NACURH policy. Following the update, the Associate Director of NRHH shall inform all chapters in the region of the change. At the discretion of the Associate Director of NRHH, a discussion of the policy change can be held at the next regional NRHH business meeting. A discussion of the policy change may also be requested by a majority vote of the NRHH-CCs present at the next regional NRHH business meeting.
